SUNDAY TV

BBC-2

7.25
THE DEATH OF KENNEDY
See panel below and page 9

7.0 p.m.
NEWS REVIEW
for the deaf and hard of hearing
A look at the news of the week with film from all over the world and a commentary that can be seen as well as heard
Presenter,
Michael De Morgan
Translator,
Ruth Leeds
Producer, RICHARD GARNER

NEWS SUMMARY: 9.50*-9.55*

11.25
LATE NIGHT LINE-UP
rounds off the weekend
Criticism, Discussion, Diversion
with
Denis Tuohy, Michael Dean
Joan Bakewell, Tony Bilbow
and tonight's guests

The Death of Kennedy

7.25—11.2

Was there more than one assassin?
Or did Lee Harvey Oswald act alone?

Cliff Michelmore
and
Kenneth Harris

lead an enquiry into the mystery and suspicions that continue to surround the murder of

PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

A growing number of people think that the case should be reopened and the doubts resolved
Walter Lippmann

That Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone is a matter of reasonable doubt
Life Magazine

You can raise questions—yes. The test is, can you answer them
Senator Richard Russell Member of the Warren Commission

The most insidious schemer in the world could hardly rig the statements of 552 witnesses
Representative Gerald Ford Member of the Warren Commission

The case against Oswald as the lone assassin is refuted by the very witnesses upon whom the Commission relied
Mark Lane

In this unprecedented programme, the controversy that persists about the Warren Commission's findings that Lee Harvey Oswald did act alone are examined on film and in the studio, in Dallas, Texas, and in Washington, D.C.

The case for the defence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD is put by
MARK LANE
Lawyer and writer
and features the first showing of
Rush to Judgment
A film by Emil de Antonio and Mark Lane

The case for the WARREN REPORT
is put by
Counsels to the Warren Commission
ARLEN SPECTER
District Attorney, Philadelphia
and
DAVID BELIN
Iowa attorney

ASSESSING THE EVIDENCE
put forward in this open-ended programme:
LORD DEVLIN
former Lord of Appeal in Ordinary
and
PROFESSOR ALEXANDER M. BICKEL
Chancellor Kent Professor of Law and Legal History at Yale University

OTHERS TAKING PART
Hugh Aynesworth
Dallas journalist
Phil Burleson
Attorney to Jack Ruby

Designer, Tony Snowdon
Assistant producer, Peter Pagnamenta
Produced and directed by RICHARD FRANCIS

SEE PAGE 9